WHERE CAN I GO?

Higher Education Institution in a Programme Country

Your host destination in Europe depends on what department you are studying at CEU

- List by department: http://acro.ceu.hu/erasmus-bilateral-agreements-by-department

- List by country: http://acro.ceu.hu/erasmus-bilateral-agreements
HOW MUCH MONEY DO I GET?

• Contribution to subsistence costs: the grant covers partly the costs of the stay abroad

• Depending on target country, expected amount between 400 – 600 EUR/month (counted on a daily rate)

• Not compatible with other EU grants

• Does not affect financial support from CEU
I WANT TO GO ON ERASMUS+ MOBILITY! WHAT SHOULD I DO?

1. Find out where you can go. Check CEU’s Erasmus website for partner institutions listed by department or by country.

2. Identify your study or research area. You should check all academic requirements with your supervisor for your time abroad including confirmation of courses that you will need to study abroad.

3. Check the courses that the host university offer, check the language of teaching/ assessment/ the academic calendar including exams. For work placements, ask for advise on requirements and suitable options.

4. Speak to Erasmus students. Exchange experiences, best practices, tips and useful info for a better overview.
SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process and decisions for Erasmus exchange are executed by CEU’s Scholarship Advisory Committee.

The Committee will send the final list of selected students for study exchange to CEU Erasmus Office in Spring 2017.
