

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FUNDING SCHEMES AVAILABLE AT CEU¹

Scheme	Purpose of the scheme	Who can apply?	Eligible costs	Non-eligible costs	Application cycle	Funding available	Guidelines
Intellectual Themes Initiative (ITI) Contact: Strategic Development Office, Julia Iwinska	The aim of the scheme is to bring together various parts of the University and support the development of new activities that encourage cross-disciplinary teaching and research, prompt new forms of civic engagement, enhance the academic profile of CEU and contribute to shaping its future institutional direction.	Teams (at least three academic staff members ² from at least two academic units; or two academic staff members and one visiting/non-CEU academic). Involvement of CEU students is strongly encouraged.	Expenses directly related to the project are eligible.	Items that are normally paid by CEU (salaries covering regular teaching or research duties).	Two application cycles per academic year: Fall and Spring	There is no limit set per project.	Applications have to be aligned to one of the four cross-cutting intellectual themes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social Mind • Inequalities and Social Justice • Energy and Society • Governance Priority will be given to projects with high impact potential that are expected to have an impact of intellectual, professional, educational, or social nature, going beyond activities with only ephemeral expected results. See call for more details.
The CEU Humanities Initiative (HI)	The aim of the scheme is to provide incentives for new cross-departmental and interdisciplinary research and teaching activities in order to support the development of the	Individual academic staff members, teams, and academic units (departments, schools, research centers).	Expenses directly related to the project (travel costs, conference costs, scholarships, post-doctoral positions,	Items that are normally paid by CEU (salaries covering regular teaching or research duties) and	Two application cycles per academic year: September 30 and March 31	There is no limit set per project.	Proposals should make clear how they will contribute something novel to the current state of humanities at CEU. See call for more details.

¹ Not including student support schemes typically regulated at unit/program level.

² In the case of individual academic staff members, it is required that they have an employment contract with CEU.

Contact: Provost Office, Andrea Katona	humanities at CEU and to infuse CEU social science programs with perspectives from the humanities.		research and teaching fellowships, visiting professorship, research assistants, public lecture series, etc.).	honoraria for guest lecturers. Activities taking place outside CEU.
Research Support Scheme (RSS) Contact: ACRO, Eszter Bordas	The purpose of the scheme is to provide support to the research work of individual faculty members, academic units and consortia of academic units. When external funding is not available, the scheme aims to support research that would otherwise not be possible.	Individual academic staff members, research groups, and academic units (departments, schools, research centers).	Expenses directly related to the research project (travel for fieldwork; cost of interviews or surveys; cost of data acquisition, hiring research assistants; etc.).	Items that are normally paid by CEU (salaries covering regular teaching or research duties). Costs related to conference organization and attendance or similar events. Costs of publication.	Continuously open between September 1 and May 31. Awards are dependent on the availability of funding.	Individual faculty may apply for up to EUR 5,000. There is no restriction on the amount academic units can apply for.	Exploratory research intended to lay the basis for a larger externally funded research projects (seed funding). Small individual research projects that cannot be undertaken without funding (for example fieldwork or archival work). Research that involves CEU doctoral students will be prioritized. See policy for more details.
Conferences and Academic Events Fund (CAEF)	The aim of the scheme is to support the realization of in-house conferences and other events, which contribute to CEU's mission and increase the recognition of CEU in the international	Individual academic staff members, research groups, and academic units (departments, schools, research centers).	Expenses directly related to the organization of the event (travel costs, accommodation costs, hospitality costs, etc.).	Items that are normally paid by CEU (salaries covering regular teaching or research duties) and honoraria for	Continuously open between September 1 and May 31. Awards are dependent on the availability of funding.	Maximum support for an event: EUR 7,000.	Please note the CEU's Policy on Gender Equity at Academic Events when inviting speakers for an event. See policy for more details.

Contact: ACRO, Eszter Bordas	academic and wider community.			invited speakers, excursions and cultural events.
Conferences and Academic Events with Hungarian Universities (CAEF-H) Contact: Office of Pro-Rector for HU Affairs, Tamas Bazsa	Funding support for organizing in-house conferences and other academic events, which contribute to CEU's mission, increase the recognition of CEU in the Hungarian academic and wider community, and encourage academic cooperation with Hungarian partners.	Individual academic staff members, research groups, and academic units (departments, schools, research centers).	Expenses directly related to the organization of the event (travel costs, accommodation costs, hospitality costs, etc.).	Items that are normally paid by CEU (salaries covering regular teaching or research duties) and honoraria for invited speakers, excursions and cultural events.	Continuously open between September 1 and May 31. Awards are dependent on the availability of funding.	Maximum support for an event: EUR 5,000.	Evidence of cooperation with a Hungarian institutional partner must be attached to the application. Please note the CEU's Policy on Gender Equity at Academic Events when inviting speakers for an event. See policy for more details.
Academic Travel Fund Contact: BFO Grants Office	The purpose of the scheme is to support CEU academic staff in attending conferences, meetings and events for academic purposes.	Individual academic staff members.	Expenses directly connected to an academic event (e.g. travel, accommodation, conference registration fee, food up to EUR 40 per day)	Costs that occur outside of the financial period of the travel grant.	Applications should be submitted at least 14 calendar days prior to attending an academic event.	Annual maximum amount: EUR 2,000	See policy P-1010-1v1411 for more details. Novell ID log-in required for access.
Teaching Development Grant	To support individual faculty members in the development of	CEU teaching faculty members who hold formal CEU faculty	Expenses directly related to the project's implementation	Faculty salaries or salary support.	Two application cycles per academic year:	Maximum support for a project: EUR 2,000.	Projects should be designed to focus on inquiry and experimentation, particularly in areas outlined

Contact: ACRO, Veronika Csapo	teaching inquiry and innovation projects.	appointment with the University over the period of the project are eligible to apply.	are eligible (attending teaching-related workshops or teaching conferences, hiring a doctoral student as project assistant(s), purchasing software, other related equipment).		November 15 and May 2		in the CEU Strategic Development Plan: greater development of connections between research and teaching; using new technologies to support learning; incorporation of problem-based learning; teaching with case studies; the development of interdisciplinary approaches to teaching; and other research-based teaching strategies.
ERASMUS + (external funding scheme) Contact: ACRO, Anna Szathmári	The aim of the scheme is to provide an opportunity for CEU's academic and administrative staff to undertake a teaching (academic staff only), learning and/or professional experience in another country.	Academic and administrative staff members.	Daily subsistence and travel contribution.	Travel arrangements not directly related to the Erasmus+ Teaching Mobility are not considered eligible.	Three times per academic year for academic mobility scheme: June 30; October 31; January 31.	Subsistence from 70 to 112 EUR per day. Travel contribution: maximum 530 EUR.	The receiving organization must be a Program Country Higher Education Institution awarded with an Erasmus Charter for Higher Education or a Partner Country Higher Education Institution having signed an inter-institutional agreement with CEU before the mobility takes place.