

AUW list of courses for the positions advertised

Economics

- Advanced Econometrics
- Econometrics
- Economics of International Trade
- Economics of Money, Banking & Financial Markets
- Game Theory
- Growth and Development
- Labor Economics
- Principles of Macroeconomics
- Principles of Microeconomics

Environmental Science

- Coastal Development
- Energy and Environment
- Environment Chemistry and Toxicology
- Environmental Hydraulics
- Environmental Microbiology
- Environmental Policy
- Geology
- Global Climate Change
- Hydrology
- Introduction to Environmental Science
- Introduction to Geographic Information Systems
- Natural Disasters: Assessment and Management Tools
- Waste Management
- Water Resources and Development

Political Science

- Civil Society and Social Movements
- Climate Change Leadership: Power and Politics (WI)
- Comparative Politics and Democratization
- Comparative Politics of Religion and Secularism
- Conflict Management & Post-war Development
- Democratic Theory
- Distributive Justice
- Introduction to International Relations
- IS: Third-Party Intervention in Civil War
- Political Economy
- Political Violence
- Social Entrepreneurship & Social Innovation
- Society & Politics in Central Asia
- The State of Nature & The Nature of the State
- The UN Security Council and War

Theories and Practices of Development

Philosophy / ethics (AUW does not have a philosophy department. Most philosophy classes are offered within the “Politics, Philosophy, and Economics” department, or at the core ethical reasoning level.)

Ethics and Cultural Heritage

Ethics in Science, Technology & Public Policy

Ethics of Humanitarian Intervention

Gender and Ethics

Global Justice

The Morality of Massacres and Genocides

Violence and Ethics